

Art for ZAM

catalogue

Dear friends,

Your ongoing support enables African changemakers and creatives to work with even greater vigour in building fair and free societies for the future. To agitate against abuse of power and theft. And to shape a vision of a new relationship between Africa and Europe based on equality and autonomy. In the sixteen years of our existence, ZAM has developed a unique solidarity model that connects globally renowned artists and African creative thinkers. Artists donate their work to ZAM which we in turn offer to our subscribers, followers and supporters.

The proceeds from sales enable us to set up new research projects, artistic collaborations, investigations and events that bring the work of our creative community in Africa and the diaspora to audiences in the Netherlands and beyond.

Artists like Marlene Dumas, Anton Corbijn, Zanele Muholi, Berend Strik, and Nontsikelelo Veleko have all donated work in the past. This year we add Clifford Charles, Nat Mokgosi, Ignacio Gumucio, Patricia Kaersenhout, Ruan Hoffman, Meschac Gaba, Sindiso Nyoni and many more to the roster.

In the fall of 2021, Dutch art collector Fred Leferink enriched our collection with a generous donation, further amplified by new donations in 2023. John Loose and the Afrovibes Festival have also helped build our collection which always holds some surprises. So please get in touch through info@zammagazine.com to find out more about latest additions.

If you would like to see a work of your preference outside exhibition times, we're happy to organise a private viewing in our studio in Amsterdam.

Beste vrienden,

Uw voortdurende steun stelt Afrikaanse changemakers en creatieven in staat om met nog meer kracht te werken aan de opbouw van eerlijke en vrije samenlevingen voor de toekomst. Om te ageren tegen machtsmisbruik en diefstal. En om vorm te geven aan een visie van een nieuwe relatie tussen Afrika en Europa, gebaseerd op gelijkheid en autonomie. In de zestien jaar van ons bestaan heeft ZAM een uniek solidariteitsmodel ontwikkeld dat wereldwijd bekende kunstenaars en Afrikaanse creatieve denkers met elkaar verbindt. Kunstenaars schenken hun werk aan ZAM dat wij op onze beurt aanbieden aan onze abonnees, volgers en supporters.

Met de opbrengst van de verkoop kunnen we nieuwe artistieke samenwerkingen, onderzoeken en evenementen opzetten die het werk van onze creatieve gemeenschap in Afrika en de diaspora brengt naar een publiek in Nederland en daarbuiten.

Inmiddels sloten Marlene Dumas, Anton Corbijn, Zanele Muholi, Berend Strik en Nontsikelelo Veleko zich bij het Art for ZAM initiatief aan. Dit jaar voegen we Clifford Charles, Nat Mokgosi, Ignacio Gumucio, Patricia Kaersenhout, Ruan Hoffman, Meschac Gaba, Sindiso Nyoni en veel meer aan onze catalogus toe.

In het najaar van 2021 verrijkte de Nederlandse kunstverzamelaar Fred Leferink onze collectie met een genereuze schenking, die in 2023 nog verder werd aangevuld met nieuwe schenkingen. John Loose en het Afrovibes Festival hebben ook geholpen bij het opbouwen van onze collectie, die altijd een aantal verrassingen bevat. Dus neem contact op via info@zammagazine.com voor meer informatie over de nieuwste aanwinsten.

Als u een werk van uw voorkeur buiten een tentoonstelling wilt zien, organiseren we graag een privé bezichtiging in ons atelier in Amsterdam.
